CLOSING DEMO

The Skipark is working hard in order to prepare the slope for the Friday closing demo show. Besides the national demos we would like to enjoy the demos of international teams as well. So we encourage the participants to form mixed teams, too. One team has the opportunity even for 2-3 runs. Those who would like to ski with own music, please submit your music in the office in time!

GERMANY – INTRODUCTION

They don't have a minute free since they have arrived. Always when they had the opportunity, were they training in the Skipark; after the Mátra Rally they didn't even participate at the party.

In order to be fit for the Monday presentation and workshops, they skipped the party. But it had its result.

It is not too often that you can witness such an accurate programme. They presented their concept at the morning demo on the slope and next to the slope with incredible accuracy, showing the eight visible signs for the right way of skiing.

This was accompanied of the Polish colleagues.

The workshops were based on the same system; the exercises were prepared very detailed, and very targeted. The German colleagues proved to be excellent teachers.

All this was topped with the key-note-lecture of dr. frank Reinboth's presentation. The information material prepared by the team helped a lot to understand the concept.

Concert (Elementary School from Noszvaj)

The music students of the Figedy János Elementary School and Arts Education Institute of Noszvaj welcome the participants of the congress.

Devil's Cart Folkdance Group

The Devil's Cart Folkdance Group was founded in 1987. The group consists of young people and adults between 17-29 years. The dancers are very enthusiastic; they are learning and presenting dances of little villages from the Carpathian Basin and Transylvania as a hobby, besides studying or working in their regular professions. In the past three years, the group is listed among the most famous Hungarian amateur dance groups. Their mission is to present and transmit Hungarian culture in Hungary and abroad.

Tonight, we would like to make you familiar with Hungarian folk music, with wonderful Hungarian folk songs, folk dance and folk wears.

Technical test as a basis for recognition

Why this presentation?

Because we believe that also the umbrella organizations should know more about each others' specific problems and areas of concern.

Like in the big world, our world of skiing is getting smaller as well, and all of us are affected by the developments taking place.

That's why I think it is useful or at least interesting for you to hear something about the developments around the famous Euro Test.

Euro Test: tests speed. It has nothing to do with safety.

As any safety expert will tell you: safety of customers is dealt with between the ears.

In Dutch instructor training we do not have the same racing culture in skiing as has e.g. France. The same goes for other sports like skating. Yet we have the best skating coaches of the world.

I challenge anybody to prove that our ski instructors are less safe or cause more injuries than instructors of other nations.

The Euro Test comes down to obstruction of the market both at international and national level.

What do we need ?

What we need is mobility in the market.

What we need is less barriers (and barriers that are less high) so that young people are able to enter the profession.

What we need is a system of mutual recognition of different levels of ski instructor diplomas.

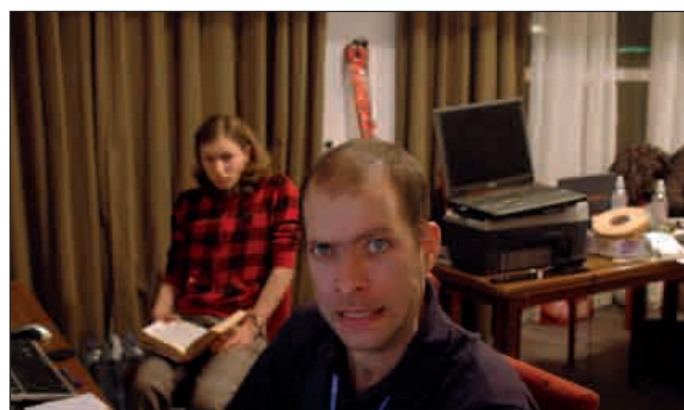

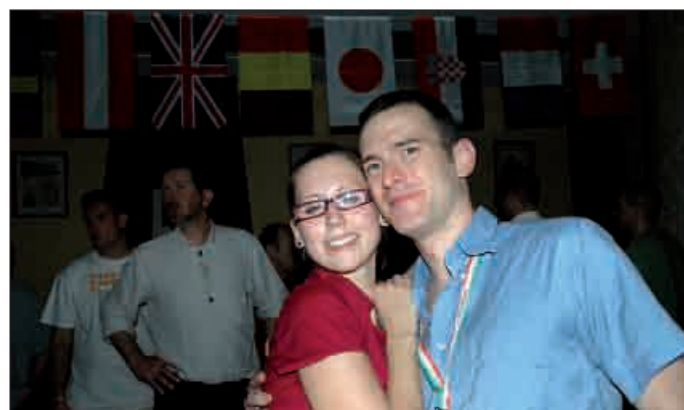

What we need is a European platform carried out on a democratic basis.

In order to regain the trust of its members, I suggest that from now on the board sends the complete minutes of its meetings to all ISIA members.

I repeat: we are long time supporters of ISIA.

We are democrats, we expect openness and transparency. We don't like blackmail, playing games or fiddling with the rules

I feel obliged to let you hear these critical notes as much out of concern with ISIA as out of loyalty towards this important umbrella organization.

PASTICE PARTY

The French team

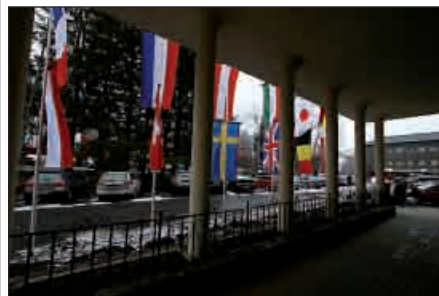

brought us delicious cheese, salami and a big amount of alcoholic drinks. Thank you for that!

DEPARTURE

We kindly ask the teams to let the organizers know when exactly and how they will leave at the end of the congress. We will organize the transfers accordingly.

GOOD LOCATION

Mátraszentistván is a great place for the congress, because nobody can go away and ski on his own, but has to participate in the professional programme as there is just one slope. (Máriusz Révész)

SYNOPSIS

We kindly ask lecturers, who haven't submitted the synopsis of their presentations and workshops yet in our office, please do so!
